A dark, stylized illustration of a residential street. The scene features several houses with varying architectural styles, including gabled roofs and arched windows. There are trees and bushes in the foreground, and a blue sky with white clouds in the background. The overall tone is muted and artistic.

Challenge:

Go and do likewise.

John 13:33-35 (NLT)

Dear children, I will be with you only a little longer. And as I told the Jewish leaders, you will search for me, but you can't come where I am going. So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples."

Today's Big Idea:

It's the desire of Jesus that His church becomes great at loving each other.

StoneWater Family Values:

1. Put the goals and interest of others above your own.

Philippians 2:3-4 (NLT)

Don't be selfish; don't try to impress others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourselves. Don't look out only for your own interests, but take an interest in others, too.

Ephesians 4:25 (NLT)

So stop telling lies. Let us tell our neighbors the truth, for we are all parts of the same body.

1 John 1:5 (NLT)

This is the message we heard from Jesus and now declare to you: God is light, and there is no darkness in him at all.

3. Give and receive Scriptural correction.

Hebrews 10:24-25 (NLT)

Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near.
